

Sinclair
Broadcasting is forcing their local stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

Broadcasters using
the public airwaves
have a legal obligation to serve
the public interest.
Democracy depends
on people being able to hear all sides of
issues, not just
what powerful
corporations want them to hear.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules.
They show why the
license renewal
process needs to require that the public is being served fairly and
responsibly.
